

Coordinated and Integrated Healthcare

Care is coordinated across all elements of the complex healthcare system (e.g., subspecialty care, hospitals, home health) and the patient's community. Care is facilitated by registries, information technology, health information exchange and other means to assure that patients get the indicated care when and where they need and want it in a culturally and linguistically appropriate manner.

Source: Joint Principles of the Patient-centered Medical Home, February 2007

OHIO ACADEMY OF
FAMILY PHYSICIANS