FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ohio Academy of Family Physicians Installs 2007-08 President-elect

(COLUMBUS, Ohio)—Keith J. Lehman, M.D., of Archbold, Ohio, was installed as the 2007-08 president-elect of the Ohio Academy of Family Physicians (OAFP) on Aug. 11 during OAFP's Annual Dinner and Members Assembly at Cherry Valley Lodge, Newark, Ohio.

Lehman, an OAFP member since 1982 and current president of the OAFP local chapter of Maumee Valley Academy of Family Physicians, has served on numerous OAFP committees including strike force on local chapters, finance, family medicine interest group advisors, predoctoral directors, practice enhancement, pay-for-performance, electronic health record and technology, and department chairs. He has been an active member of the American Academy of Family Physicians (AAFP) since 1982 and is certified by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM).

Lehman currently practices medicine at Archbold Medical Group, Archbold.

He received his Bachelor of Science in Biochemistry and M.D. degree from The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, and completed his residency at Riverside Methodist Hospital Family Practice Residency Program in Columbus.

Lehman and his wife, Jackie, reside in Archbold (43502) and have two children, Brent and Bethany.

The Ohio Academy of Family Physicians is a statewide professional association with more than 4,400 members, including practicing physicians, family practice residents and medical students. The scope of family practice encompasses all ages, both sexes and every disease entity. Family physicians provide comprehensive, continuing care to all members of the family.
