FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ohio Academy of Family Physicians Installs 2007-08 President

(COLUMBUS, Ohio)—Renee L. Markovich, M.D., of Akron, Ohio, was installed as the 2007-08 president of the Ohio Academy of Family Physicians (OAFP) on Aug. 11 during OAFP's Annual Dinner and Members Assembly at Cherry Valley Lodge, Newark, Ohio.

Markovich, an OAFP member since 1997, has served on numerous OAFP committees including national action, communications and bylaws. She has been an active member of the American Academy of Family Physicians (AAFP) since 1997 and is certified by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM).

Markovich is currently the clinical associate director of the Akron General Center for Family Medicine Residency Program, Akron.

She received her combined Bachelor of Science in Combined Science and M.D. degree from Youngstown State University, Youngstown, Ohio, and completed her residency at Southwest Georgia Family Practice Residency in Albany, Ga.

Markovich resides in Akron (44312).

The Ohio Academy of Family Physicians is a statewide professional association with more than 4,400 members, including practicing physicians, family practice residents and medical students. The scope of family practice encompasses all ages, both sexes and every disease entity. Family physicians provide comprehensive, continuing care to all members of the family.
