OHIO ACADEMY OF FAMILY PHYSICIANS

Emerging Leaders
2024 AAFP Family Medicine Advocacy Summit
May 19-21, 2024

Description:
A strategic initiative of the Ohio Academy of Family Physicians (OAFP) is to provide varied leadership opportunities and support to members who are ready to lead. To that end, the OAFP has created a program to support two emerging leaders to attend the American Academy of Family Physicians' (AAFP) Family Medicine Advocacy Summit (FMAS) in effort to provide ongoing leadership development and continuity for understanding Ohio's role in national level priorities.

Eligibility
Those interested in applying for emerging leader support must:

- Be an active OAFP member type and;
- Have been a member of the OAFP Public Policy Workgroup within the last three years.

Requirements
Members chosen for emerging leader support will be:

- Required to attend all portions of the FMAS activities,
- Encouraged to submit a report of their experience upon return from the FMAS and;
- Encouraged to connect with OAFP's Advocacy Manager upon return from the FMAS to discuss goals or next steps in advocacy or leadership interests.

Selection Process & Timeline

- Members interested in selection and funding should complete and submit an application and a current CV to Micah Cook at mcook@ohioafp.org by January 22, 2024.
- The OAFP Executive Committee will review applicant materials and select up to two emerging leaders to send to the AAFP FMAS.
- Selections will be made and recipients notified by February 9, 2024.

OAFP Support
Support includes the following eligible expenses:

- Coach airfare or mileage when driving at IRS approved mileage reimbursement rate;
- Travel by car, bus or taxi to/from home to airport and airport to/from hotel and to the location; of any OAFP sponsored event held away from the conference hotel;
- Single room rate hotel for dates of the meeting (maximum 3 nights lodging) and;
- Per Diem - $150 (maximum 4 days).
