

2023 Magazine Subscription Form

The Ohio Family Physician is published quarterly in March, June, September, and December.

The current print and digital distribution is more than 7,800. Subscribers include the entire OAFP membership, Ohio and national legislators, American Academy of Family Physicians state chapter executives, Ohio medical associations, and Ohio medical libraries.

Typical subject matter includes features on clinical topics and other subjects that affect family physicians including physician wellness, practice management and technology, social determinants of health, and health care advocacy and legislation.

The magazine also serves as a vehicle for OAFP to communicate important dates, partnerships, conferences, opportunities, and other Academy news.
